Study Abroad - Anthropology

Why Study Abroad?

Open your eyes to the world. Invest in your future by developing cross-cultural skills that will enable you to communicate with colleagues anywhere in the world.

Enhance your career. Learn how to function in a culturally diverse environment early on. Develop broader skills, and ability to adapt to new environments.

Personal growth. See your culture and yourself from a different perspective. Learn to appreciate other languages and cultures, while better understanding your own cultural values.

Did you know?

You do not need to speak another language to study abroad. Many programs offer courses in English.

Experience Anthropology Abroad!

“After being abroad, I feel that I have a better understanding not only of the world but of the classes I’ve taken at Rochester. Everything changes when you have a real life example to complement everything you’ve learned thus far. – Jessica Bohanon ’11, Delhi Spring ’10.

What are my first steps?

• Attend an information session
• Research programs
• Meet with a study abroad advisor.
