

Friday, January 29th

Strong Auditorium 8pm

Jane Comfort and Company present

Beauty

A multi-disciplinary dance work and panel that provocatively explore the American notion of female beauty through the lens of Barbie.

Tickets:

$5 students / $15 general public

inspire
DANCE Festival

Jane Comfort addresses contemporary social and cultural issues with compassion and wit. The company is an extraordinary group of dancers, actors and singers whose multiple talents allow Jane Comfort to create deeply layered works utilizing a wide range of theatrical elements, from pure dance to chanted texts, acapella singing, film, lip-syncing, cross dressing, acted scenes and puppetry.

More information at www.rochester.edu/college/dance or call 585 273-5150

This event is made possible with generous funding by, The Humanities Project, University of Rochester School of Arts and Sciences; The Arts in Mind Project; The UR Program of Dance and Movement; The Office of Richard Feldman, Dean of the College of Arts, Sciences and Engineering; The Office of Student Activities; The Office of Admissions; The AIN Center for Entrepreneurship; The International Services Office; Office for Faculty Development and Diversity; and Frederick Douglass Institute for African and African-American Studies