Master’s Essay

All Master’s students in English select as their capstone project either a Master’s Essay or a Comprehensive Examination.

If you choose to write a Master’s Essay to complete your Master’s degree, you must complete this proposal form and submit it, signed by your advisor, to the graduate secretary by April 15.

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Title for Project: __________________________________________________________

Abstract of Project: _________________________________________________________

Advisor’s Name: ____________________________________________________________

Advisor’s Signature: _________________________________________________________

NOTE: All MA Essays will also be evaluated by a SECOND faculty reader within the Department, to be selected either by the degree candidate or by the MA Advisor. Any student with a second reader in mind is encouraged to talk with him or her prior to submitting this form.

* If you have consulted with your second reader and secured his/her agreement to serve, please indicate his/her name here: ____________________________________________________________

* If you have not yet consulted with a second reader but have suggestions for faculty whom the MA Advisor might approach, please indicate their names here: ____________________________________________________________