

Josie Bready

jbready@ur.rochester.edu

EDUCATION

PhD Candidate — Began August 2018

University of Rochester

MA in History — Awarded May 2018

University of Rochester

BA in History, Summa Cum Laude — Awarded May 2017

University of Tampa

Study Abroad Program — January 2017

Trinity College, Dublin

ACADEMIC PRESENTATIONS

(With Liv Coleman) “Sunshine in the Digital Age: Reconsidering Government Technology Best Practices for Transparency and Accountability”

Florida Political Science Association — Orlando, FL April 2017

“Water and the Maya”

Florida Collegiate Honors Conference — Gainesville, FL February 2016

Florida Undergraduate Research Conference — Tampa, FL February 2016

AWARDS AND HONORS

Andrew W. Mellon Digital Humanities Fellowship, University of Rochester — 2021-2023

Sanford Elwitt Memorial Prize, University of Rochester — 2020

Sproull Fellowship, University of Rochester — 2017

Phi Alpha Theta J. Ryan Beiser Award for Outstanding Achievement in History, University of Tampa — 2017

Pollock Award, University of Tampa — 2016

Holocaust Memorial Scholarship, Consular Corps of Tampa Bay — 2016

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Internship with the Graduate Education and Postdoctoral Affairs Office at The University of Rochester – May 2021-August 2021

Job with The University of Tampa Press Office – March 2016-May 2017

Internship at the Tampa Bay History Center – May 2016-December 2016