David Harman, Music Director and Conductor
University of Rochester Symphony Orchestra

This season marks David Harman’s twenty-first season as Music Director and Conductor of the University of Rochester River Campus Orchestras. He continues to enjoy a busy and varied career as a symphony conductor, university professor, and music educator. In addition to his position at U of R, he is also Music Director of the Penfield Symphony Orchestra and The Rochester Philharmonic Youth Orchestra.

Dr. Harman has conducted professional, civic, university, youth, and honor orchestras throughout the U.S. and abroad. Professional appearances include return engagements with The Louisville Orchestra, The Cincinnati Symphony, The Tucson Symphony, The Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, Cordancia, The Lake Placid Sinfonietta, Opera Theater of Rochester, and a special appearance with the Orchestra of the Spring Festival of Contemporary Music in Ljubljana, Slovenia, under the sponsorship of Arts America. Harman also served as guest conductor of the Shanghai Conservatory Symphony (China), The Jamaica Orchestra for Youth (JOY) in Kingston, the Grand Cayman School Music Festival, the New York All-State String Orchestra and the Metropolitan Student Orchestra of Santiago (OSEM), which is a major orchestra of the Foundation for Youth and Children Orchestras of Chile. Over the past twenty-one years he has led the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra in concert tours of England, France, Germany, Italy, Poland, Slovakia, Hungary, Québec and, last season a special concert at Carnegie Hall in New York City.

In 2005 Dr. Harman received the Richard H. Snook Award from the Monroe County School Music Association for his contributions to music education. The Rochester Chapter of the professional music fraternity Mu Phi Epsilon selected him as Musician of the Year for 2008.

Prior to returning to Rochester, he was a Professor at the University of Louisville (KY), conductor of the Louisville Civic Orchestra and assistant conductor of the Louisville Orchestra. He frequently conducted the Opera Theater of Louisville, and served as executive secretary of the Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition. He held similar positions at the University of Connecticut and Colorado State University.
A native Californian, Dr. Harman earned B.A. and M.A. degrees from California State University at Sacramento. He studied in Paris as a French Government Scholar, at the Aspen Music School, and earned a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the Eastman School in 1974. Dr. Harman has also led an active solo career as a clarinetist with three solo recordings, numerous recital appearances in major concert halls in London and New York, and several national broadcasts recorded for French (ORTF), British (BBC), and American Public Radio (NPR, WQXR). He and his wife, Lori Foster, live in Rochester.

Luke Piscitelli, violin soloist

Luke Piscitelli is a senior at the University of Rochester studying Environmental Science with minors in Music and Economics. He currently serves as the principal second violinist in the University of Rochester Chamber Orchestra and is a member of the High Falls string quartet. Luke enjoys swimming, biking and collecting elephant ties.

Dr. Anne-Marie Reynolds, guest presenter

Anne-Marie Reynolds is an Associate Professor of Music at the State University of New York. For the past twenty years she has published widely on Nielsen’s music, including the first-ever monograph on his songs, entitled Carl Nielsen’s Voice: the Songs in Context (Museum Tusculanum Press, 2010). Beginning in the fall of 2015, she will be on the faculty of The Juilliard School.
