INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW AND POLICY

COURSE DESCRIPTION: An examination of international environmental law and policy with a special focus on efforts to address climate change, including the Paris Agreement under the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change. This course serves as a companion to PSC 246, but PSC 246 is not a prerequisite. The goal of this course is to provide a foundational understanding of this rapidly developing, controversial field. Topics include consideration of the scientific, political, and economic drivers of international environmental law; the variety of tools (e.g., treaties, agreements, “soft law,” voluntary incentive programs and market based approaches); and examples of how some international environmental issues have been addressed to date, including efforts to date on climate change. The course will be taught through lectures, discussion, a research paper, a group project and three tests.

CREDIT HOURS: 4 credit hours. This course follows the College credit hour policy for 4-credit courses. This course meets twice weekly for 150 minutes per week. The course also includes independent out of class assignments and group work for 1 hour per week, including using assigned readings and other class materials (as noted in the syllabus assignments). These activities include to preparation to lead or participate in group discussion, work on group case discussion questions, worksheets (posted on Blackboard), reflections, and team-based group project. Students are expected to spend at least 8 hours per week on assigned reading and papers as discussed below. Length of reading assignments will vary given the complexity of the material assigned.

CLASS DAYS/TIMES and LOCATION: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 15:20-16:40, Lattimore 210

COURSE OUTLINE AND READINGS: The class will include considerable class discussion as well as lectures. There will be one paper, student led discussion, group project presentations, and three tests. Class attendance is expected; grades will reflect attendance and participation.

OFFICE HOURS: I will have office hours before class from 2:00-3:00 Tuesdays and Thursdays in Harkness Room 316 or by appointment. The best way to contact me is by e-mail (tnoto@rochester.rr.com).

TEXTS:

Additional readings will be available on electronic reserve. All readings are required and should be read before class to enhance the value of both the lectures and the discussion.

ASSIGNMENTS: Directions will be provided (and posted on Blackboard) for each assignment. Be sure to comply with all instructions, including minimum page limits.

Academic honesty is important; you must include citations, quotation marks, and works cited. Points will be deducted for late work unless prior permission is given.

GRADING: Attendance, participation, group work, worksheets, group project and discussion: 15%; Paper: 15%; Test #1: 20%; Test #2: 25%; Test #3: 25%.

COURSE LEARNING/OUTCOMES: Students will be able to demonstrate a basic foundational understanding of international environmental law (IEL) and policy, from guiding principles (including sustainable development and common but differentiated responsibilities) to the treaty regimes studied this semester (including the Ozone regime and the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change and the Paris Agreement) as assessed by the three unit tests. Students will develop their skills in analyzing and discussing IEL issues through frequent classroom discussion, assigned readings, and out of class assignments. Students will further their research, collaboration, and presentation skills through working on a group project that will enhance student understanding of how forest biodiversity, conservation and timber resource issues and governance vary from State to State. Students will gain insight through writing a thoughtful, well-supported research paper examining climate change law and policy through the lens of the challenges and policies of a particular developing or developed country.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES: Students are encouraged to utilize academic support services: the Writing Speaking and Argument Program, https://writing.rochester.edu; Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL), www.rochester.edu/college/cetl

ACADEMIC HONESTY: All assignments and activities associated with this course must be performed in accordance with the University of Rochester's Academic Honesty Policy. More information is available at: www.rochester.edu/college/honesty

DISABILITY RESOURCES: The University of Rochester respects and welcomes students of all backgrounds and abilities. In the event you encounter any barrier(s) to full participation in this course due to the impact of disability, please contact the Office of Disability Resources. The access coordinators in the Office of Disability Resources can meet with you to discuss the barriers you are experiencing and explain the eligibility process for establishing academic accommodations.
