ITAMAR KUBOVY is the founder of the Marble Theatre in Boston, which produced Dionysus in '89. He also developed and directed Richard Elovich's show, Someone Else From Queens is Queer, which received a Bessie Award in 1991.

RICK KNUTSEN, who composed an original score for this production, has collaborated with Kubovy many times, both while they were students at Yale, and afterwards, on shows such as Dionysus in '89.

GRAHAM BLYTH, a senior, designed numerous productions at the University, including last year's production of Nicholas Nickleby.

WALTER WEINER, a senior, has designed lights for some student shows including You're a Good Man Charlie Brown.

MARC SPENCER, a U.R. student, has worked on many University productions, including assistant sound design for Talk Radio.
