

Alleghany River Dances

Wednesday, April 27, 2022 5:30pm

Wilson Quad (Rain location: May Room), Free Admission

The Alleghany River Indian Dancers are a Native American dance group that showcases the traditional songs and dances of the Iroquois. The general performances incorporate many aspects of Native American culture.

Thrilling audiences since the 80s

Live Music!

Highlighting Iroquois Smoke dance and The Hoop dance

Sponsored by the University of Rochester Program of Dance and Movement with support from the CCE

For more information contact Rose Beauchamp at rpasquar@ur.rochester.edu

For more information, please visit <http://sas.rochester.edu/dan/>