PhD Registration Template

Sample course of study

How to use this form: The registration below is a sample. Use it to see how credit hours and course types typically distribute across the five years, then record what you actually register for each term in the Registered lines. Confirm your registration each semester with your advisor and the graduate coordinator.

Note that HIST 595 is credit-variable. Most students will register for 9 credit hours a semester after they are ABD.
