

DANTE POLITICO

A large, white marble statue of Dante Alighieri, wearing a hooded cloak and holding a book, stands in the foreground. In the background, another smaller statue of a man is visible on a brick building. The sky is clear blue.

AT THE CROSSROAD OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

AN INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
ON DANTE'S POLITICAL THOUGHT

MARCH 20-21, 2020
9:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M.

HUMANITIES CENTER
CONFERENCE ROOM D
RUSH RHEES LIBRARY
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

DIRECTOR: DONATELLA STOCCHI-PERUCCHIO
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

COORDINATOR: SILVIA BENSO
ROCHESTER INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Theorizing Italy
A CNYHC Working Group

SPEAKERS

MARIA LUISA ARDIZZONE, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY, NY

GIUSEPPE MAZZOTTA, YALE UNIVERSITY, CT

FRANZISKA MEIER, GEORG-AUGUST UNIVERSITY OF GÖTTINGEN, GERMANY

MARIANO PÉREZ CARRASCO, UNIVERSITY OF BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

FLAVIO SILVESTRINI, UNIVERSITY ROMA TRE, ITALY

PAUL STERN, URSINUS COLLEGE, PA

DONATELLA STOCCHI-PERUCCHIO, UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER, NY

MIRKO TAVONI, UNIVERSITY OF PISA, ITALY

JORGE WIESSE REBAGLIATI, UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC, PERU

Advance Registration Required

joanna.drexel@rochester.edu

Free and Open to the Public

sas.rochester.edu/humanities/programs/humanities-project/current

SPONSORS: This event has been made possible by the Central New York Humanities Corridor, the Humanities Project, the Department of Modern Languages and Cultures, and the Office for Global Engagement at the University of Rochester. Other contributing departments include Art & Art History, the Cluster for Premodern Studies, English, History, Humanities at the Eastman School of Music, Mechanical Engineering, Philosophy, Religion & Classics, and the Robbins Library at the University of Rochester; the College of Liberal Arts and the Center for Statesmanship, Law, and Liberty at the Rochester Institute of Technology; Romance Studies at Cornell University; and Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics at Syracuse University.

