

UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE

STUDY ABROAD FELLOWSHIP

UR undergraduate or graduate students, having finished at least three years of coursework in GERMAN or its equivalent (GER 200), may apply for this exchange fellowship to the UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE.

Administered by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultures, The UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE FELLOWSHIP is annually awarded to two students for study in a field of their choice. Fellows receive a generous stipend while teaching one course per semester in the English department at the UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE. Transfer of credit for undergraduates must be arranged with the Study Abroad office before leaving.

1) a statement of purpose indicating both the nature of work they intend to do in Cologne and the manner in which this work will benefit their academic or professional career; 2) a letter of recommendation from a University of Rochester faculty member; 3) a statement from a German language instructor regarding the applicant's competence in German; and 4) a copy of the applicant's transcript to:

PROFESSOR SUSAN GUSTAFSON/DEPT OF MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURES/ 425 LATTIMORE HALL/RIVER CAMPUS, RC BOX 270082.

- DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: DECEMBER 11, 2020
- DECISION WILL BE MADE BY JANUARY 15, 2021

CANDIDATES MUST SUBMIT: