Dr. Ian Quinn to lecture on the River Campus

"They'll Sing Fa-Sol-La in the Tavern": Music Literacy and Identity in America, 1698–1958 The singing of psalms and hymns has been an important site of cultural exchange between Black, White, and Indigenous communities since the founding of the United States. This talk traces the role of musical literacy in the negotiation of American identities, focusing on the controversial vernacular singing-school traditions that spread through the camp meetings of the Second Great Awakening and that live on in the DNA of contemporary American musical practices from folk to gospel. Humanities Center (Conference Room D), Rush Rhees Library - Friday, November 4: 6-7pm

Student Activity Spotlight

Midnight Ramblers presents THE TWILIGHT RAMBLERS: This semester, the Midnight Ramblers are proud to present The Twilight Ramblers, a parody of the Twilight film series. The Ramblers hope to incite laughter in the audience by capitalizing on the aging of the film's acting, as well as sprinkling in jokes about a cappella and the broader university community. The Tenor-Tenor-Baritone-Bass a cappella group will feature songs by George Michael, Billie Eilish, Aerosmith, and many more. In addition, K-pop/Urban dance group RICE Crew will make a guest group appearance.
