For your comfort & safety, we hope you are wearing flame-retardant pajamas. Also, look for the exit nearest your seat (usually a door of some kind). There are two exits at the front & rear of the auditorium, above which – suspiciously – someone placed lighted signs with the word “Exit” in BIG letters. Coincidence? Or cosmic design?! You tell me.

Eating, smoking & bag piping are all prohibited in Strong Auditorium. The bag pipes are ok, if played during an AC/DC tune, but not simply for the “beck of it.”

Please turn off all phones, especially if your ringtone is a bag pipe
