

11th Biennial University of Rochester Graduate Epistemology Conference Program

Location: All sessions to take place in Humanities Center, 202 Conference Room D

Friday, April 1

10:00 am – 10:30 am	Registration/Welcome – 212 Lounge
10:30 am – 11:20 am	Session I Felipe Oliveira (Syracuse University) “The Coherence of The Truth Norm” Commentator: Yusuke Satake
11:30 am – 12:20 pm	Session II Gus Turyn (Cornell University) “Internalism about testimonial injustice” Commentator: Tessa Brunnenmeyer
12:30 pm – 2:00 pm	Lunch – 212 Lounge
2:00 pm – 2:50 pm	Session III Gabriella Xin Zhang (Washington University in St. Louis) “Performance Errors as Skilled Actions: A Dilemma for a Propositional Account of Skill” Commentator: Kevin Gaussein
3:00 pm – 3:50 pm	Session IV Kellan Head (Syracuse University) “Sacrificing Epistemic Goods: A New Argument Against Moral Encroachment” Commentator: Zachary Barber
4:00 pm – 4:30 pm	Coffee Break – 212 Lounge
4:30 pm – 6:00 pm	Session V Distinguished Alumnus Speaker: Matthew Frise “Justification on the Tip of the Tongue” Commentator: Kolja Keller

Saturday, April 2

8:00 am – 8:55 am	Breakfast – 212 Lounge
8:55 am – 9:00 am	Welcome
9:00 am – 9:50 am	Session VI Speaker: Mack Sullivan (University of Notre Dame) “How to get Gettier with value” Commentator: Xinlu Li
10:00am – 12:15 pm	Session VII Keynote Speaker: Miriam Schleifer McCormick “Trusting is Believing” Commentator: Richard Feldman
12:15 pm – 1:45 pm	Lunch – Not provided. On-campus options include the Pit, Danforth Dining Hall, and Starbucks