Select any 2 W-designated courses in IR or PSC. Included in the 12 courses listed above. No more than 1 of these courses may be used to satisfy the writing requirement in a second or third major.

- _____
- _____

 Team Learning

Select at least 1 Team Learning course. Included in the 12 courses listed above.

- _____

For the courses listed:

- They must be 12 distinct courses.
- At least 9 of the 12 courses must be listed as PSC or IR.
- Courses used to satisfy Tools of Political Analysis cannot also be used to satisfy requirements for the Core Track, Breadth or Electives.
- No more than 4 introductory courses can be used. In most departments, all 100-level courses are considered introductory. The exceptions are courses offered by the History Department. In History, only the following courses are defined as introductory: HIS 102, HIS 103, HIS 140, HIS 141, HIS 150, HIS 151, HIS 160, and HIS 161.

Transfer Credit

All transfer courses subject to advisor approval. Transfer courses may not be used to satisfy the following requirements: Tools of Political Analysis, Upper-Level Writing, or Team Learning. No more than 2 transfer courses may be used toward the Core Track. No more than 3 transfer courses may be used toward the major. Internships count as 1 course toward the major, even if students receive more than 4 credits in the internship toward general degree requirements. PSC/IR 394A (European Political Internship) is not a transfer course; it is treated like a course taught in residence at the University of Rochester. Credit is not granted for online courses.

Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate

Students who receive a grade of 4 or 5 on the AP exam in either American or Comparative Government or a grade of 5, 6, or 7 on the Higher Level IB exam in Global Politics will be granted 4 credits in the major. Students who take more than one exam are not eligible for additional credit. This credit is considered Elective, Introductory, and Transfer.
