

PSC/IR 252: Ethnic Politics

Prof. Bethany Lacina

Thursdays, 2-4:40

Morey 504

This course takes up three questions: What is ethnicity and when is it politically important? How does ethnic politics matter for economic outcomes? What is the relationship between ethnic politics and political violence?

Instructor

Professor Lacina

Email: blacina@ur.rochester.edu

Office: Harkness 322

Office hours: Thursdays, 9:30–11:30 or by appointment

Course Requirements

1. Students should complete all assigned reading before coming to class. All readings are available through Blackboard.
2. There will be a midterm and a cumulative final, each worth 30% of the final grade. There are no make-up exams, so please make any travel plans accordingly. Exams will be a combination of multiple choice and short answer questions.
3. If you are entitled to examination accommodations, please coordinate these with the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning in advance of the examination (see <http://www.rochester.edu/college/disability/index.html>). Students will not be able to obtain special examination accommodations directly from the professor.
4. The remaining 40% of the grade will be based on out-of-class assignments. An overview of the assignments for the class appears below. The exact instructions and grading rubric for each assignment will be distributed in class.
5. Assignments are due by the beginning of class on the due date. Assignments will be submitted by email unless otherwise specified.
6. Barring extraordinary circumstances, late work will be marked down a third of a grade (e.g., A to A-) for each 24 hour period after it is due. Thus, if an assignment is turned in any time during the first 24 hours after it is due, it is penalized a third of a grade. Any assignment not turned in within a week of the due date will automatically receive a zero.
7. Requirements for students who are not in the writing intensive section of the course:

- Out of class assignment due 2/8. A poster and one page memo that explain the politicization of ethnicity in a place where you have lived using theories from class. Worth 10% of final grade.
- Midterm (3/15) worth 30% of grade.
- Cumulative final (4/9) worth 30% of grade.
- Any 2 of the additional out-of-class assignments described below. Each will be worth 15% of the final grade.

8. Requirements for students who are in the writing intensive section of the course:

- Out of class assignment due 2/8. A poster and one page memo that explain the politicization of ethnicity in a place where you have lived using theories from class. Worth 10% of final grade.
- Midterm (3/15) worth 30% of grade.
- Cumulative final (4/9) worth 30% of grade.
- Any 3 of the additional out-of-class assignments described below. Each will be worth 10% of the final grade.

9. Extra credit:

- Attend the Cutler Lecture given by James Forman, Jr. on his book, Locking Up Our Own: Crime and Punishment in Black America. The lecture will be in the evening on March 1. Students who attend will receive an additional 2% added to their grade at the end of the semester.
- There will be in-class activities for earning extra credit throughout the semester.

Out-of-class Assignment Schedule

1. Due 2/8: A poster and one page memo that explain the politicization of ethnicity in a place where you have lived. (ALL STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE THIS ASSIGNMENT). Worth 10% of final grade.
2. Due 2/15: A 3-4 page essay reporting on your research of the history of a particular name for an ethnic identity.
3. Due 3/8: A review of two books on race and incarceration in the United States.
4. Due 3/29: Report on the relationship between ethnic diversity and group effectiveness after observing teams, clubs, study groups, or coworkers on campus.
5. Due 4/26: An essay analyzing artwork that advocates ethnicity-related violence.

Regrading

If a student wishes to challenge the grade assigned to all or part of an assignment, the following steps must be taken:

1. Email the professor a request for a re-grade (see below) within 1 week of the assignment being returned to the class.
2. A request for a re-grade must explain which aspect(s) of the grading rubric the student believes should have been assigned a higher score. For each disputed aspect, students must justify why they should be given a higher grade given the standards in the grading rubric and cite specific materials in the readings or lectures if applicable.
3. The professor will re-grade all aspects of the assignment. The students final score on the assignment may go up or down or be unchanged.

Academic honesty

Students and faculty at the University must agree to adhere to high standards of academic honesty in all of the work that we do. The College Board on Academic Honesty provides further information on our policies and procedures: www.rochester.edu/college/honesty.

You are encouraged to discuss course readings and assignments with your fellow students. However, all written work must be done independently and not in collaboration with another. All written work must properly format quotations, use citations, and include a bibliography where necessary. ALL cases of suspected plagiarism will be referred to the Academic Honesty Board.
